

Creating The Masterpiece (Conception to Unveiling)

A Retreat in Creativity: September 30-October 4th , 2011 Jonker Portrait Gallery

Come and join Master Photographer JuliAnne Jonker on a journey in creativity.

She is hosting this workshop in her cozy Apple Valley studio in Minnesota.

JuliAnne will explore with you the history of art as it applies to photography.

She will also share with you what has helped to make her home based studio grow into a successful business for over 15 years. From the consultation with the client, to the unveiling of the finished portraits, JuliAnne will walk you through each step of the process.

Each workshop is streamlined to the needs of that particular group and may include any of the following

- Hands on shooting with models
- Working with different lighting setups
- Photoshop and post processing techniques.
- Applying real oil paints/and or pastels to the photographic canvas.
- Alternative processes with images created in class
- Visiting local art museums in the Twin Cities area.
- Group sharing and collaborating together
- Don't miss this opportunity to grow as an artist, be refreshed and inspired, learning from a Master in an intimate small group setting.
